

FAE'S STAR CATCHER

by Andrew "Change" Huang

a wooden flower
blooms slowly in the moonlight
and captures a star.

suddenly, the star—
glance stolen by a flower—drenches in moonlight.

light dapple moonlight
washes from above; the star wakes up the flower.

inside dreams of a flower,
new memories—in moonlight—
release then a scar-healed star.